

GOVERNMENT TO SIGN NATIONAL AGREEMENT BATTLE FOR CHEAPER FOOD OPENED BY THE PRESIDENT

POSSIBILITIES OF STRIKE BELIEVED TO BE LESSENER

AMICABLE ADJUSTMENT OF
THOUGHT TO BE NEAR.

Chicago Workers Out MAINTENANCE DEPARTMENT MENACED BY WALKOUT OF NEARLY 30,000 EMPLOYEES.

Possibility of a strike in the local Louisville and Nashville shops was believed to have been lessened today as a result of the posting of a bulletin signed by B. M. Jewel, acting president of the employees' department and Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, declaring that the railroad administration will sign the national agreement.

Negotiations have been in progress several weeks between the government and machinists, trainmen and clerks, looking to a wage increase, the machinists seeking an increase of from 68 to 85 cents an hour.

The strike, if called, would be general all over the nation, it is stated. Workers in Chicago today walked out. The bulletin, requesting the men to stay on the job until the completion of negotiations, follows:

"The International Officers and National Agreement Committee of Federated Trades have explained to me that they are anxious to place before the shop employees the following communication:

"The International Officers and National Agreement Committee of Federated Trades have been in conference with the director-general on the question of a national agreement and wage increases.

"We are now officially assured by the director-general that the railroad administration will sign the national agreement, and an earnest effort is now being made by the director-general to give us definite information at the earliest possible moment as to the position of the railroad administration regarding wage matters.

"The successful termination of our efforts depends upon the united support of all men involved.

"There must be no cessation of work during these negotiations.

"We will advise as soon as we are in possession of further information.

"By order of
"B. M. JEWELL,
"Acting President of the Employees' Dept.

"WALKER D. HINES,
"Director-General U. S. Railroad Administration."

20,000 MEN WALK OUT AT ATLANTA, GA.

(International News Service.) ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 1.—Upwards of 20,000 railway shop workers, members of the Federated crafts, have walked out in Atlanta under instructions received from the general committee of the organization. The general walk-out was called at ten o'clock today.

MANY ARE ON STRIKE IN CHICAGO VICINITY

(International News Service.) CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Chicago and other cities within a radius of 300 miles were hit today by a strike of between 25,000 and 30,000 shop workers. The strike menaces the maintenance department of every railroad entering the city. Labor leaders claimed that every road in the nation might become involved.

CHICAGO PACKERS DRAW COLOR LINE; RIOTING IS OVER

FEEDING PROBLEM IS BIG ONE.

Fires Are Smoldering ESTIMATED THAT THREE HUN- DRED PERSONS WERE IN- JURED DURING RIOTS.

(International News Service.) CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Comparative peace reigns in the Chicago riot zone today, and the tide of anger, malice and race hatred that has surged for more than four days apparently has abated. The turmoil has not entirely ceased, and the mob spirit is still smoldering, but authorities are confident that outbreaks of violence have been effectively checked.

Reconstruction problems today began to engage the attention of the authorities. One of the most serious problems is that of feeding families in the riot zone and that of employment of negroes. It is said today that several packing establishments that formerly employed about 15,000 colored men have drawn the color line and will hire white labor only, hereafter.

Vigorous prosecutions, resulting in the possible hanging of a number of men, both black and white, will soon be under way. No tabulations of the wounded have been made, but reliable estimates place the number at 300. About 150 rioters are under arrest.

LOCALS WIN TWO FROM HUNTSVILLE

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Aug. 1. (Special).—Albany-Decatur had little trouble of disposing of Huntsville yesterday in a double-header, winning both contests by scores of 6-2 and 10-1. The two meet again here today for the third game of the series, after which the visitors will return home.

Barnes and Bass worked yesterday and had the locals at their mercy while the entire visiting team hit hard. Graham is scheduled to work today with Steadman behind the bat.

Saturday is an off-day for Albany-Decatur, Manager Hames announced. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday they will play in Haleyville, then return home to tackle Lawrenceburg three games.

Alabama House Regrets Race Riots

(International News Service.) MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 1.—On motion of Representative Hawkins, of Jefferson, the lower house today expressed its regret at the race riots in Washington, Chicago and other cities and called on the people of the Northern states to adopt a more humane consideration and sense of justice in dealing with the race problem. A motion by Mr. Blount, of Washington, to reconsider the two cents a ton tax on coal brought a debate during which it was charged that coal mine operators of Jefferson county had raised the price of fuel last winter and put inferior steam coal on the market.

LONDON COPPERS REFUSE TO QUIT

LIVERPOOL POLICEMEN, HOW-EVER, GO OUT IN SYMPA-THETIC STRIKE.

(International News Service.) LONDON, Aug. 1.—The strike of London policemen called for today proved a failure. Only 220 out of the 5,000 men on duty had left their posts this morning. The strike, however, promises to bring serious consequences.

During the day the strike extended and Home Secretary Joyce announced in the House of Commons this afternoon that 548 men were out. Leaders of the bakery workers declared there would be a national walk-out on Saturday.

(International News Service.) LIVERPOOL, Aug. 1.—The entire police force and the city firemen went on strike today in sympathy with the London police.

(International News Service.) LIVERPOOL, Aug. 1.—Post office employees today threatened to join the policemen's strike "if such a step should be necessary to win."

M'LELLAN BUYS M'CLURE STORES

THREE YEAR OLD ORGANIZA-TION NOW SAID TO BE SECOND TO KRESS.

Announcement was made today by the local McLellan store of the purchase by the McLellan chain of the McClure syndicate of 5, 10 and 25 cent stores. The McClure stores will be operated under the name of the purchasing syndicate.

Organized only three years ago, the growth of the McLellan chain has been phenomenal and it is now said to be the second largest chain in the world, being topped only by the Kress syndicate.

Regarding the deal, the Atlanta Georgian in a recent issue says:

The McClure stores in nine cities, i. e., Athens, Griffin, Macon, Marietta, Moultrie, Newnan and Rome, Georgia, Chattanooga, Tenn., and Union, S. C., have now become the property of the McLellan interest and will henceforth be operated under the new name. These, together with the McLellan stores already being operated in Cordelle, Dalton, Dublin, Fitzgerald, Gainesville and Thomasville, place the McLellan Stores Company in a very strongly entrenched position in this State. All told, there are forty McLellan stores now in the Southeast, having an annual business of over $2,000,000.

The executive offices of the McLellan Company, although a Southern concern, are in New York City.

France Also May Ask Reservations

(International News Service.) PARIS, Aug. 1.—President Wilson was responsible for the failure of the French government to make known the minutes of the peace conference to the Chamber of Deputies, according to the Matin today. The paper added that it knew no reason why the American president should take this course. The French peace commission will recommend the ratification of the treaty with reservations, the Matin says, as some of the parts of the pact seem "feeble" to the members.

WALTER HUMPHRIES ELECTED PRESIDENT BOYS FARM CLUBS

JOPPA YOUTH IS GIVEN HIGH
SESSION.

Boys Are Entertained

Walter Humphries, of Joppa was elected first president of the Boys farm clubs of Morgan county at the opening session of today's program in the rooms of the Albany-Birmingham Commerce. Waymon Dodson, of Falkville, was named secretary. Both of the races developed competition several nominations being made for both offices. The successful candidates are well known members of clubs in their communities.

Last night the visitors were entertained at a theatre party at the Masonic. The Lee Osborne company, playing there this week, gave several special numbers for the youthful farmers.

Yesterday afternoon, following the adjournment of the business session, the boys spent an hour in the swimming pool at the Y. M. C. A. Last night they were the guests in homes of prominent citizens and today several other entertainment features, in addition to the regular business sessions, are planned.

This morning addresses were made by Dr. Keystone, of Birmingham, on health. He told the club members of the importance of keeping themselves and their communities in the best of health and urged upon them several simple methods of sanitation and cleanliness for their farms.

He was followed by Clyde Hendrix, president of the Tennessee Valley bank chain, who talked on thrift. Both talks were received with much interest by the future agricultural leaders of the county. The sessions are being attended by a number of grown people who find they are obtaining worth while lessons also.

The sessions have been very successful, County Agent Carnes and Mr. Herron of Auburn, who have charge, are given credit for the widespread interest of the boys in their work, for the large attendance here and for the expert handling of the short course.

At this morning's meeting, resolutions introduced by a committee, composed of Walter Humphries, Waymon Dodson and Pat Stephenson, were adopted unanimously thanking the city and citizens for the entertainment given the visitors. The resolutions follow:

Resolutions adopted by Morgan County Club Boys:

Be it Resolved, we the corn and pig club members of Morgan county do hereby extend our appreciation to the city of Albany for the hospitality and cordial welcome during our Boys' Agricultural Short Course.

Be it further resolved that we fully appreciate what the Board of Commerce, with Mr. Muebes as chairman, has done for us in the way of extending their hall and serving of refreshments.

Be it further resolved that we especially appreciate the kindness and personal attention shown us by Mr. Spencer, chairman of committee on arrangements.

And be it further resolved that above all do we take this opportunity to thank the good citizens of Albany for the entertainment of us boys in their homes.

COTTON CLIMBS TO HIGHER LEVELS ON GOVERNMENT REPORT

Department of Agriculture Gives Condition As 67 Per Cent on July 25.

(International News Service.) New York, August 1.—Cotton advanced 200 points immediately after the opening today on the strength of the government cotton report.

There was a scramble by shorts at the opening and an advance of 160 points was recorded. Within 15 minutes prices soared to 200 points above the opening, where it was checked.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Damage to the cotton crop from the boll weevil is probably more widespread at this time than ever before, the department of agriculture announced today.

From southern and eastern Texas to the south-eastern corner of South Carolina, weevil is reported as doing serious damage to a generally late crop in all invested territory. Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama and much of Louisiana and Mississippi suffered severely from rains during the month.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The crop reporting board of the U. S. department of agriculture estimates from reports of correspondents that the condition of the cotton crop on July 25 was 67.1 per cent of normal, as compared with 70 on June 25, 1919; 73.6 on July 25, 1918, and 76.1 per cent, the average on July 25 for the past ten years. The condition forecasts a yield per acre of 156.8 pounds, and a total production of about 11,016,000 bales.

Alabama's condition was reported at 64 per cent.

FINDS WANT AD THE BEST 50-CENT INVESTMENT IN HIS ENTIRE LIFE

J. V. Higgins, prominent business man of Athens, has lived 37 years without ever having spent 50 cents that brought him greater returns than a lone hal dollar paid for an ad in the want columns of The Albany-Decatur Daily, according to a letter received from him today.

Read how he got results from classified advertising: The Albany-Decatur Daily, Albany, Ala.

Dear Sirs:

After running my "Money for Sale" ad in your paper for three days, costing me only 50c, I have just gone and purchased an order for my money sales and correspondence alone. I am 37 years old, and have never spent 50c before, that brought me this much business. I say put for sale ads in the Albany-Decatur Daily for results.

I am enclosing my check for 50c, let this add go again for three days, and it will finish up my Money Crop for this year. Of course all I want to do is to get a sample of my money in any home, the flavor and quality will talk. Friendly yours,
J. V. HIGGINS.

FIGHT TO REDUCE HIGH LIVING COST FAIRLY UNDER WAY

PRESIDENT, CONGRESS, AND CABINET COMBINE TO LOWER PRICES.

Sharp Break Forecast

CLOTHING AND FOOD UP ONE HUNDRED PER CENT
SINCE 1913.

SOME PRICE CLIMBING

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Since 1913 the cost of food has advanced 88 per cent, bureau of labor statistics revealed today. During this period a number of articles have increased 100 per cent or more, including sugar, pork chops, ham, bacon, 107 per cent; potatoes, 111 per cent; corn meal 125 per cent; flour 127 per cent; lard, 154 per cent. During the last year alone food increased 14 per cent. Since December 1915, there has been an average increase of 120 per cent in the cost of wearing apparel; 45 per cent for fuel, 125 per cent for furniture and furnishings and 65 per cent for miscellaneous articles.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The existing high cost of living will be forced down. Every available agent of the government now is being utilized to reach this result. That was the position assumed by Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, following an hour's conference with President Wilson today.

Mr. Palmer stated that a committee made up of Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads; William B. Colver, of the federal trade commission, and R. C. Leasingwell, assistant secretary of the treasury, today began a probe of the entire problem of living cost, to report at a special meeting of cabinet officers and department heads next Monday. At the same time means for affecting permanent relief were being mapped out by the various government agencies.

HOUSEWIVES IN FIGHT

(International News Service.) NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The housewives of the nation entered the fight against the high cost of living and through the National Housewives League made an appeal for relief direct to the President today.

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The government's first concerted drive against the high cost of living was under way today.

With President Wilson himself squarely behind the campaign to bring down the cost of the necessities of life, with congress aroused to the necessity of enacting remedial legislation, with five cabinet members enlisted in a co-ordinated effort to bring relief, and with the war department about ready to distribute its $120,000,000 food surplus by parcel post, the belief that there would be a sharp break in prices in the very near future was held in official circles today.

The distribution of the army food was considered only an emergency measure, the $120,000,000 representing but a little more than $1 worth of food for every man, woman and child in the country.

MORE FOOD SOLD

(International News Service.) NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Further steps were taken today by the city government of Newark, N. J., and New York city to aid the laboring population to get food at a reasonable price. In Newark the sale of army bacon was at almost 100 per cent less than the prevailing prices. Tomorrow 30,000 pounds of ham will be put on the market.

THE GOOD ROADS BILL PASSES THE SENATE

With the passage by the senate yesterday of the Crafts good roads bill, which affords the voters an opportunity of so amending the constitution as to take advantage of the federal appropriation for highway improvement, Alabama may be said to have entered a new era. The House will pass the bill by the same overwhelming majority, and there is but little doubt but that when the amendment is submitted it will be ratified.

The good roads measure has the backing of the Alabama Highway Improvement association, an organization made up of representatives from every county in the commonwealth. It provides specifically that the people shall vote to so amend the constitution as to permit the issuance of road bonds to the extent of $25,000,000 within a period of twelve years, these bonds to be retired by a tax on motor vehicles which it is estimated will yield an annual revenue of $800,000. Such a tax is one of the fairest that could be imposed, and one that will be cheerfully borne. The motor car, without a system of good roads, is a luxury at best. The wear and tear on the machine from traversing faulty highways, not to mention the expense of being pulled from mud-holes, are more than offsets to the special tax which the bill provides. Those who do not own cars are certainly willing to have the value of their property increased, the price of their food stuff reduced, and the good name of their state enhanced at the expense of the man who buys and burns gasoline.

If the amendment is ratified, and the Daily believes that Morgan county will do its part, Uncle Sam will step into the breach and with dollar for dollar do his full share of converting the impassable lines of this state into broad and rolling highways over which tourists may pass in a constant stream.

A SOUTHERN ROMANCE OF BUSINESS

When Mr. Behrmer spoke here at the Chautauqua he chose as his theme "The Romance of Business," and in eloquent words pictured stale commercialism as a pulsing, living thing that had wound its threads around the hearts of the nation just as tightly as sentiment ever did. He told of that side of business life that is made up of hopes and ambitions, of longings and aspirations, of joys and sorrows, of opportunity and outlook. In his illustrations, however, he did not delve deeply into the career and doings of the South's richest home-made man, Asa Candler, of Atlanta, who is brought strongly to the public mind this week by the announcement of the sale of the Coca-Cola company to eastern capitalists for the round sum of $25,000,000, which does not include the bottling rights nor the Candler building, the premier structure of Dixie. Had Mr. Behrmer, with his eloquence, chosen to do so he could have devoted his entire lecture to this one financial romance, which stands apart as distinct from any other. The Rockefellers and the Goulds, the Morgans and the Carnegies have built their fortunes largely by use of staple methods. They amassed wealth through monopoly maintained by sheer financial force, or by finesse, manipulation or daring. With Candler it was different. He bought his ticket to fortune for $600 which he invested in a formula, and his monopoly was perpetuated by keeping that formula secret. He juggled no stocks, crushed no competition. The only thing he did was to gradually increase his output of Coca-Cola, and to invest a certain per cent of the proceeds of his business every year in advertising. After he had become well established he took a flyer into politics and was elected mayor of his home city. He also developed into a patron of education and helped to establish a great university. He has shown himself to be a man of splendid instincts and unusual ability, and the romance of his life is one that will long thrill the people of the South.

THE RIGHT OF FRANCHISE WORTH FIGHTING FOR

Opponents of the Lynne bill, no matter what arguments they advance, no matter how many meetings they may hold, no matter how much prejudice or supposed self-interest they may appeal to, are faced by but one issue—shall the people have the right to vote their own sentiments for or against consolidation? The Lynne bill provides only for the vote, and to save the expense of fruitless or unwarranted elections, it stipulates that 25 per cent of the qualified voters of both towns must sign petitions before an election can be called. Is this fair? In this democratic? There can be only an affirmative answer, unless new definitions are given to these two terms that should be and are sacred to the American people. The Revolutionary war was a needless sacrifice of human life if majority rule is to be discredited. And majority rule is set aside when the right of the ballot is withheld. There can be division of opinion as to the wisdom or expediency of consolidation. The right of the people to vote cannot be controverted.

ONLY THE PEOPLE ARE FRIENDLESS NOW

That everybody has a friend at court down at Montgomery except the people has been made plain again this week. The lawmakers, despite the opposition of the administration, saved the day and their jobs for the tax assessors; they reduced the insurance tax one-half; they defeated the coal and iron tax, at least temporarily, by a vote of 44 to 43. In fact, every organized agency with a lobby on the ground has won victory, while only the income tax provision of the general revenue bill has been overwhelmingly voted. And the income tax is the one inroad into the pocket-books of the tax payers themselves. All the other measures would have affected merely a class. Thus do the law-givers continue to shout for the dear folks at home and to continue to shear the sheep that they so often mislead.

Calomel Today! Sick Tomorrow!

I Guarantee Dodson's Liver Tone

Don't take nasty, dangerous calomel when bilious, constipated, headachy. Listen to me!

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea. If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

ONLY GREATER CITY CAN BRING INDUSTRIES, SAYS COL. C. C. HARRIS

Former Congressman Comes Out Strongly in Favor of Consolidation.

Col. C. C. Harris, who filled the unexpired term in congress of the late Judge William Richardson, is one of the best and most favorably known men, in the Twin cities, especially among the older inhabitants. He lives in a house just up the hill from Lee street, which he built over fifty years ago and has lived in continuously ever since.

In speaking for publication today, Col. Harris said: "I have worked to get our two towns reunited ever since they first separated. I can speak of Albany as my town with just as much propriety as I could of Decatur. In fact, I have done more for Albany in my public work than I have for Decatur. As I am too old for anyone to be jealous of me, I might rehearse that I was one who spent time and money getting up the $100,000 necessary to get the present L. & N. shops located here. And I recall that I paid $25 toward sending the man to Washington who helped in the location of a postoffice at New Decatur, now Albany. I also spent some money and a lot of time in getting the old Memphis & Charleston Railroad to agree to lay their tracks by way of Albany, but for some reason they never kept their agreement. I always felt that whatever benefitted Albany helped me, just as much as what benefitted Decatur, and I acted always on that principle. There is hardly one of the older churches in Albany, that I did not help build."

Speaking about consolidation, Col. Harris lapsed back into language not found in the grammars, but very expressive. "Why," almost raged the Colonel, "we don't amount to nothing, and as a city we never will amount to nothing if we do not consolidate! Why we have not got but one productive industry to speak of, that is the L. & N. shops. It is from them that all our money is distributed. We just spend our time trading among ourselves. We don't produce anything hardly. Until we can go down on the census as a twenty or twenty-five thousand city, we will never draw any industries worth working in. It will be the greatest absurdity and pity if the people yield at this time to little bickerings and imaginary grievances."

"I was very much impressed with the recent issue of the Daily containing a letter from Mr. Moebes, especially where he touches on depots and public buildings. It has grieved me to notice the rancor and almost hate that has been stirred up over the present site for the proposed federal building. If all the people knew the facts about why the present site was decided upon by the treasury official who made the decision, they would not feel as many seem to. I know, for I was in congress at the time, and I am the only one here who does know, first handed. I know the day the decision was reached. This official sent for me, and the only lot offered that was near enough the depot to be within the free delivery of mail district by the railroads what the one se-

WAS CONFINED TO BED TWO MONTHS FROM RHEUMATISM

HUNTSVILLE LADY WAS IN BAD CONDITION; KNEES WOULD SWELL DOUBLE THEIR NATURAL SIZE; COULD NOT WALK.

CLAIMS GREAT RELIEF FROM TAKING THE NEW REMEDY, DRECO.

"I could not walk on account of the pain and swelling in my joints caused by rheumatism, and was confined to my bed for two whole months, and suffered agonies," are the words of Mrs. Georgia Fullington of 104 Green street, Huntsville, Ala.

"I know what it is to suffer, in addition to the rheumatism, my nerves went to pieces so that I could not get any sleep till long after midnight. I was constipated and suffered from severe backache. My appetite dropped off until I became weak and pale.

I'm a whole lot better now, since taking Dreco. The pain and swelling in my knees are about gone, and I can rest well at night. My bowels act with regularity and I have a healthy appetite again. I expect to take several bottles of Dreco before stopping, and feel that I'll clean my whole system out."

Many persons are speaking highly of the new root and herb remedy, Dreco, which seems to overcome rheumatism, regulates the bowels, increases the appetite, induces sound sleep, rouses a sluggish liver and strengthens weak kidneys.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Albany by Albany Drug Co. and in Decatur by Hilda Drug Co.—Advertisement.

lected. He done it on the ground of free delivery by the railroads! The deciding thing was this very thing, that the selected site was near enough the depot to get the mail delivered without additional expense to the federal government. That is all there is about it. I would have been glad if the location had been different. I had property much nearer certain locations near the county court house. Of course, a lot of delegations went to Washington, but they did not amount to anything. In time we can have a terminal depot centrally located, and I will work as hard as I can to get it so located. As for the federal building, it should not cost less than $300,000.00 and it should be centrally located, and in time I think it can be arranged. But in the meantime the federal census is taken in six months from now and our cities should be one by that time."

In speaking about the bill which is now before the legislature, called the Lynne bill, Col. Harris said: "It gives Albany city one majority on the temporary board of aldermen but I would be perfectly willing that Albany should have a larger majority, as I am not afraid of their aldermen attempting anything unfair. Anything unfair by either set of aldermen would not be allowed by the public sentiment of either town. Nobody, unless it is the politician class, is specially concerned as to just how large the majorities on the temporary board are, and I don't think the people, all the way from below the shops to the river, are going to let them run this election. I believe that the true friends of progress and the future city will make all the concessions necessary on both sides to bring the consolidation idea to a successful consummation."

It is shrewd common sense to feed a horse a balanced feed, which will develop every part of its body. Analysis of Purina O-Molene Feed shows that it contains in proper proportion all the elements for muscle, blood, hair and hide making, as well as a large percentage of Nitrogen free extract, which supplies heat and energy. There is no 15 to 18 percent waste as in feeding the whole oats, due to swallowing whole.

STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN

THE PEOPLE OF ALBANY:—

Our good friend, Mr. Otto Moebes, president of the Board of Trade, in an article published in the "Daily" on Wednesday weighs most strongly against the resolutions adopted by the city of Albany at a meeting recently held and takes the writers to task, if not by name, by plain inference, for an article appearing in the "Daily" on March 22nd of the present year.

It is with sincere regret that we feel it necessary to reply to our good friend's article, but in a spirit of absolute friendship and respect towards him, and in an effort to correct certain inaccuracies contained in this and other statements, and to defend the interests of Albany, we feel that we should do so.

It has been thought for some time by some of our people that our good friend, as president of the Board of Commerce, of this city, really takes himself too seriously, and that he unduly burdens himself with too many questions of public policy affecting the city, and his article seems to bear out the belief of these people. Our article deals at length with a committee who visited Washington the early part of this year in an effort to save to Albany the right of erecting a government building. The writers of this article were part of the committee who made this trip, and that it was understood, upon its return, that Mr. Moebes had all but condemned the entire committee to regions infernal and spiritual, because the committee did not secure passports from the State Department before making this unheralded journey. However, when the committee arrived in Washington, it found that our good friend had preceded it with a letter, written, as we were informed, by the president of the Board of Commerce of this city, commanding the committee (as he now proposes to command the Railroad Commission) to build, construct, erect, establish, maintain, support and operate a government building in the City of Albany. We read this matter with the senators from this state, and the people of the comfort that they gave us with reference to the fact of our good friend was that it was not even good enough to be mentioned.

One might say, as a matter of history, in connection with the office fight, that the proposition to introduce a bill in Congress authorizing an appropriation for the erection of a government building in this city, as we are advised, was offered this year, a soothing syrup years ago, but, of course, the parties to this proposal was made known that this proposal was nothing but a soothing syrup, for they knew, as one of our senators said, that we had as well undertake to pass a bill in Congress for the erection of a government building on the site of Mars' as to undertake to pass a bill through Congress for the erection of a government building in Albany with an appropriation for a government building already authorized. We add, however, that this letter of our good friend was one of many handicaps which we encountered while in Washington.

Our good friend takes us to task for signing a document which he considers sacred and inviolate, and which was published in the "Daily" on March 22nd of this year. The following is the concluding paragraph of this statement:

"We have information about the present status of the post office, the source of which we cannot divulge, but we think we can say from this information that the erection of the building as now planned, on the present site selected, will not militate in the least against a very large appropriation for a public building, located at a convenient place for the two cities, and more than likely Second Avenue, when the cities of Albany and Decatur consolidate by legislative action, as they will undoubtedly do when the next legislature is convened."

As a preface to what we shall say about this article, we wish to state, under the constitution of this state, the next legislature referred to in this article, cannot be convened until January, or practically four years after the date of the statement. Members of the next legislature will not be elected until the year 1922, and the writers presumed that if the question of consolidation should be made an issue at that time, that some can with well defined ideas, would sponsor a bill looking to the consolidation of the cities of Albany and Decatur along the lines of the Birmingham bill, with a companion bill in such form as to protect the interests of Albany, based on its then population, and the taxable value of its property. We do not see how it is possible for any one to construe this article, or any statement herein as committing us as favorable to the question of consolidation as presented by the present bill now pending before the legislature of Alabama. When the article, referred to, was written, the present legislature had been at bat for one inning, and presumably had not even thought of the question of consolidation, and the matter of consolidation had not been made an issue in any previous campaign when the representatives and senators were elected. It was stated at the meeting held at the opera house after the return of this committee from Washington, on the question of the post office situation, that, since the question of consolidation was not an issue in the campaign of 1918, that it seemed that the present legislature would have nothing to do with it. Therefore, we are at a loss to know how it can be concluded that we have changed our minds or committed ourselves to a question of consolidation. We do not know what our views were in 1923, and we are wondering if our good friend knows our views will be at that time.

We do not really believe that our good friend will endorse the bill when he really understands how unfair it is to Albany. There are many objectionable features to this bill, but we do not want to be tedious and undertake to call attention to all of these objectionable features, but we do, particularly, wish to call attention to sections six and seven of the bill as introduced in the legislature. We quote sections six and seven of the bill as introduced in the legislature:

Section 6: Be it further enacted, that immediately upon the announcement of the result of said election, if in favor of consolidation, the city council of the smaller constituent city shall convene and elect any and all additional members of the council, as may be necessary, to give the smaller city a membership equal in number to that of the council of the larger constituent city, and which shall be done within five days after said announcement of the result of the election; that thereupon, and hereafter, the said councils of the two constituent cities shall constitute the city council of the consolidated city, and at the first meeting of the city council shall be held at the city hall of the more populous of the constituent cities on a call to be issued by the existing president of the city council of the larger city, or call signed by any three of such councilmen; the call first filed with the probate judge shall constitute the legal call, which must be published for five days before such meeting. All subsequent meetings shall be held as the council may determine.

Section 7: Be it further enacted, That at such first meeting, or some adjournment thereof, the said city council may be called to order by the president of the council of the larger city, but if he shall be absent or shall fail to act, then by the mayor of the smaller city, but if he shall also be absent, or fail to act, then by the mayor of the larger of such constituent cities, but if he shall be absent, or fail to act, then any councilman or alderman may call the meeting to order, the members present constituting a quorum for the transaction of business whether a majority be present or not. The first meeting shall proceed to elect a president of the council who shall be a resident of the larger constituent city, upon whose qualification the term of the former president shall cease, and the council shall then proceed to elect a mayor, who shall be a resident of the smaller constituent city, upon whose qualification the term of the former mayor shall cease.

It will be observed that section six of this bill in the plainest and most positive terms says that if the two cities vote in favor of consolidation, the city council of the smaller city (Decatur) shall convene and elect any and all additional members of the council as may be necessary to give the smaller city a membership equal in number to that of the council of the larger city (Albany) and which must be done within five days after the announcement of the result of the election. How many members of the council will Albany have when the election is held? When the result is declared, and when the council of the smaller city (Decatur) elects the additional members provided by section six? This question cannot be better answered than by quoting from the Act of the legislature prescribing the number of councilmen which Albany now has and will have at that time, and which is found in Special Acts of the Legislature of 1909, and on page 100 et seq:

"In cities having a population of six thousand or more, at each general municipal election, there shall be elected the following officers, who shall compose the city council for such cities, and who shall hold office for two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified, and who may exercise the legislative functions of city government, and any other powers and duties which are, or may be, vested by law in the city council or its members: A president of the city council; and in cities having seven wards or less, two aldermen from each ward, to be elected by the qualified voters of the several wards voting separately in every ward; except in cities of less than twenty thousand inhabitants, in which two aldermen from each ward shall be elected by the electors of the city at large."

This provision of this Act of the legislature is indeed easy to construct, but lest some may have doubts about what constructions the courts would place upon it, we call attention to the fact that in the case of Reese v. Winton, reported in 62 Southern Reporter, page 487, the Supreme Court of Alabama held that the president of the council was a member of the council, and clothed with the same rights as any other member. Therefore, Albany's council will be composed of nine members. Any one with ordinary intelligence, and applying good common horse sense to the consideration of this provision can, therefore, see that the smaller city (Decatur) will be entitled to elect four additional councilmen, so as to have nine members or the same number as the larger city (Albany). Section six further provides that thereupon, and thereafter, (That is, after the smaller city (Decatur) has elected its four additional councilmen, so as to have nine councilmen) that the city councils of the two consolidated cities, the smaller city (Decatur) with nine, and the larger city (Albany) with nine, shall constitute the city council of the consolidated cities. But until what time? Section seven answers this question, for in this section it is provided that the city council as thus constituted shall only hold until the first meeting, or at some adjournment of the first meeting of the council of the consolidated cities. When the first meeting is called, section seven directs that the council as then constituted shall proceed to elect a president of the council, who shall be a resident of the larger city (Albany), and upon whose qualification (that is, taking the oath of office) the term of the former president (the then president of the council of the larger city) shall cease, and that he shall not longer be a member of the council. There is not any provision in the bill which inhibits the council of the consolidated cities from electing any one from the larger city (Albany) it sees proper as president of the council at this first meeting. Suppose the council concludes that it does not want to elect or continue in office the then existing president of the council from the larger city, but that it does want to elect some other member of the council from the larger city as president of the council, and it proceeds to elect such member? What then occurs? When the newly elected president of the council qualifies, the then existing president of the council from the larger city ceases to be president or a member of the council. The larger city (Albany) will then have eight members of the council, including the president, while the smaller city (Decatur) will have nine members. The council as then constituted will then have a right to elect an additional alderman to fill the vacancy caused by the elevation of one of its members to the presidency, and under the Act above referred to, it is the sole judge of his qualification and election, and the council could then elect a member from the smaller city, thus giving the smaller city a representation of TEN in the council as against EIGHT from the larger city. But, if the council should fill the vacancy from the larger city, then the representation in the council would be exactly the same in number from each city. The larger city, in the temporary organization of the city government cannot, under any circumstances, have a greater representation in the council than the smaller city, and it can be seen that it is possible, and highly probable that it will have a less representation. The bill further confers the Mayor upon the smaller city.

Lest we be misunderstood, we will state that, in our judgment, the council of the consolidated cities can elect an outsider, so to speak, from the larger city, as president of the council, but this would not give the larger city more than nine members of the council, for, as before suggested, then then existing president would cease to be a member of the council, thus making the representation of the cities the same in number.

We confidently believe that Albany has double the population of its sister city (Decatur) and several times its white population; it does an infinitely greater business in all lines; the taxable value of the property in Albany is more than 60 per cent greater than that of Decatur, and if giving to our sister city equal or greater representation in the temporary organization of the consolidated city, which is the one important organization, is fairness, then we submit in all candor that unfairness ought to be a virtue.

Our good friend owns property in Albany, and his friends own property here, and we ask him if he does not believe that he would display good judgment by showing some flexibility in ideas, and in patterning after the old adage, which says that "Wise men change their minds, but fools never."

Our good friend, to quote him exactly, says, "If consolidated within a short time, we can command the Railroad Commission to build us a creditable union station centrally located." The history of the Railroad Commission is that it has acted on its own judgment in the past, and has not, heretofore, obeyed all commands to the letter. However, it may have not been commanded by our good friend. Many cities and towns in Alabama, including the great city of Mobile, have undertaken to command the Railroad Commission, and in some instances their commands have been obeyed by this body, and we think that a careful investigation of the records will show that the railroads have refused in an even 100 per cent to comply with the commands of this body. One of America's early philosophers once advised us to guide our feet by the light of experience. If we are guided by this light, we will not be able to get much comfort from the advice of our good friend to surrender our present depot and the trade it brings to us, and let this trade be absorbed in other quarters to await the bidding of the Railroad Commission, and the disposition of the railroads to follow its bidding. Since our good friend is in the commanding business, however, we wish that he would command the railroad commission to command the Southern Railroad to run its tracks and passenger and freight trains into this city, and see that these commands are obeyed. If he would do this, we believe a life tenure of the office of president of the Board of Commerce would be tendered to him, not on a silver platter, but on a platter of gold, studded with diamonds, rubies, and other precious stones.

We have only one apology to offer for the article which our good friend saw fit to quote in full, and that is, that we referred in this article to the contractor of the government building as "MR. Samuel Plato." We did not know, at that time, that he was a "nigger." In this connection we will say that the keynote was sounded at the recent meeting of the citizens of Albany, at which the resolutions so severely condemned by our good friend were adopted, and that note was: That in this particular instance, the "nigger" was not in the wood-pile, but in the hole. Samuel hasn't been able to get the government building out of the hole, but if Albany will tie itself on to the present consolidation plan, we surmise that a very determined effort will be made to increase the appropriation for this building to perhaps a quarter of a million dollars, or more. That when the building is completed Samuel will not only be out of the hole, but almost to the sky when on top of the building.

The situation confronting Albany on the question of consolidation is indeed grave at the present time. Any plan which gives the smaller city equal or greater representation in the council or governing body of the city is too unfair to be countenanced. Any plan which does not give Albany the mayor and at least double the representation in the temporary organization of the cities is unfair, and indeed dangerous.

This temporary organization is charged with the duty of dividing the city into wards, and it can exercise this duty in such manner as that the smaller city will always control the situation. The temporary organization can establish the permanent location of the city hall and perhaps the high school, and other things of equal importance, and it is easy to see that it can by its action, permanently blast and crush the hopes of Albany.

There are many dangers which are hidden, but we have not the space to devote to these. This question should not be viewed from a standpoint of sentiment, but from a standpoint of good common sense. Sentiment may argue for consolidation but certainly reason does not. We ask the people to carefully study the plan for themselves, and especially do we ask them to carefully read the proposed bill, and carefully read the statute which we have referred to above. Many statements have been made through the press and otherwise, that Albany will have nine members of the council and Decatur eight. These statements were evidently made without any knowledge of the provisions of the bill and the general law. If any one will take the time to carefully consider the question for himself, and read the bill and read the statute, such an one will see that we are correct, and that Decatur is given equal representation with Albany, and that the situation can be manipulated so as that it will have a greater representation and in addition to this it will have the mayor.

Notwithstanding the fact that this city has been willing in the past to consolidate with the city of Decatur on fair conditions, we believe the people of Albany, in the light of the situation as it now appears, and especially in the light of past experience in the post office fight, will not further consent to tie themselves hand and foot to the city of Decatur until such time as such details have been worked out as will assure to Albany such public buildings, public schools, post office and depot facilities, and representation as the population, area and taxable value of the property of this city justify, and we believe that when the people examine the situation carefully for themselves, they will STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN, and when they LISTEN, they will assuredly heed.

Respectfully submitted,

Phonograph in Photography.

A photographer has found a phonograph a valuable aid in obtaining the desired facial expression in a subject. After studying the face of the person whose likeness he is to obtain he decides whether he wishes an animated, reserved, sad or pensive expression. He then places a record in the phonograph likely to stimulate the expression desired. For animation he will play such a tune as "Dixie," while to produce a sad or thoughtful expression "My Old Kentucky Home" may be played.

ALICE BRADY IN "REDHEAD" AT MASONIC SATURDAY

Alice Brady, in the past, has been starred in many a picture that has made a hit with the public, but it is doubtful if any of them can compare with "Redhead," her latest Select Picture, which comes on Saturday to the Masonic theatre.

The story is deeply interesting and impressive and gives you a sane view of the chorus girl who is looked down upon by the world in general just because she happens to be a member of the chorus. Alice Brady shows you the good heart, broad soul and clean mind of the little girl of the chorus who married a wealthy young good-for-nothing, when they were both under the influence of liquor. Ignoring his insults when he discovers that his allowance has been cut off because he has married this girl, Dazie, or "Redhead" as she was popularly called because of her Titian hair, bravely goes on loving and mothering the man she has taken "for better or for worse."

How his eyes are finally opened to the beautiful character of his wife and her wonderful and devoted attention to him is graphically told in the closing reels of the story. The picture is well directed and has an excellent cast. Conrad Nagel plays opposite Miss Brady. "Redhead" will leave a pleasant taste in your mouth.

TO PALE PEOPLE— YOUR BLOOD MAY BE STARVING FOR IRON!

If Your Blood Needs Iron, It Needs ZIRON, the New Compound of Iron, Which Acts as a Strengthening Tonic, Enriching the Blood and Building up the System.

When your blood lacks the proper proportion of red corpuscles to give your complexion the "rosy hue of health" and your complexion is pale, "pasty-looking", perhaps even greenish-tinged, you are probably of an anemic or chlorotic nature, and your blood needs Ziron, to bring back the rich, red flush of health.

Ziron, the new compound of iron, the hypophosphites of lime and soda, and other tonic, strengthening ingredients, has been found of great value in conditions of simple anemia, chlorosis, debility, nervousness, lack of ambition, loss of appetite, dyspepsia, etc. It is a valuable reconstructive tonic, in cases of weakness, and helps build up the constitution after severe illness.

Mrs. Mae Belle Perkins, of Adairville, Ga., writes: "About two months ago I got to feeling badly. My back hurt me badly, and my legs and arms hurt too, and I didn't have any appetite at all to eat. About two weeks ago I commenced taking Ziron, according to directions on the bottle. By the time I had taken the medicine for a week, I could see it was doing me good. I had been weak and nervous, and it made me feel stronger, and I'm not a bit nervous now. My back is all right, and my arms and legs do not ache. And my appetite is good again.

Before I started using Ziron I wouldn't rest at night, I was so tired feeling and felt worn out. I have used nearly the whole bottle and now I sleep fine every night. It sure is a fine medicine, and I am glad I tried it."

Ziron is non-alcoholic, contains no habit-forming drugs, acts gently, has no bad effects, is good for men, women and children. It is a medicine of genuine composed of ingredients prescribed by eminent physicians. Try it.

SPECIAL OFFER: Buy a bottle of ZIRON, today, at your druggist's and give it a fair trial, according to directions on the label. After using up one bottle, if you find it has not benefited you, take it back to the druggist and he will refund what you paid him for it. We repay him, so there is no reason why he should not repay you. This offer only applies to the first trial bottle. (C. A. L.)

MRS. J. W. MOODY PUBLICLY
EXTOLTS TRUTONA AS A
"PERFECT TONIC."

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 31.—Mrs. J. W. Moody for the past several years has served in the capacity of Matron at the Nashville Y. M. C. A. As "mother" of the boys, Mrs. Moody has acquired the acquaintance of several hundred dormitory men and subsequently a host of friends in the city of Nashville. She is among the many who are today unqualifiedly endorsing Trutona, the perfect tonic.

"Nervousness, stomach and kidney trouble had bothered me for some time," Mrs. Moody said. "I invariably felt sick at my stomach and bloated after eating. I didn't sleep well at night and often experienced severe nervous spells when I'd just shake all over. I was usually constipated.

Trutona has given me great relief from my kidney trouble as the pains in my back are less severe and more infrequent now. Trutona has relieved my constipation to a greater extent than any other medicine I've ever taken. My liver is acting better now, too. I sleep more soundly at night, also, and don't have to get up with my nerves as before. Trutona has helped me in more ways than one and I'm glad to recommend it to everyone suffering from stomach and kidney trouble as well as nervousness."
